Gaye & the Wild Rutz, blues and roots

Come enjoy the Garden as you listen to the sounds of American roots music! Gaye Adegbalola & The Wild Rutz (pronounced ROOTS) is an ensemble of women, with Gaye Adegbalola on lead vocals, and the group is complemented by percussion and occasional guitar. Gaye, founding member of Saffire--The Uppity Blues Women (1984-2009) continues her "sassiness" in roots music tradition. She has toured nationally and internationally, and has won numerous awards including the prestigious Blues Music Award for Best Female Blues Artist in 2015. Adegbalola has 16 CDs in national distribution, including 5 on her own label, Hot Toddy Music. Please note: Limited seating available on a first-come, first-served basis.
